

Four exhibitions to open for public viewing

Center for Maine Contemporary Art

1/25/2022

John Houck, Accumulator #34.2, 3 Colors Each #009AB2, #F7BA9E, #F86367, Creased archival pigment print (unique).
Submitted photo

The Center for Maine Contemporary Art announces four Winter/Spring exhibitions that open on Saturday, Jan. 29, and remain on view through Sunday, May 8. Related events, including artist talks and an artists' reception, will be held as well

Walk the Line

Main Gallery

Walk the Line features an exceptionally diverse range of works by eight Maine and Maine-connected artists who share a central use of linear or geometric forms in their compositions. Seen together, these artists underscore the expressive power of the line through works that span assemblage, photography, textile, painting, printmaking, sculpture, and artist books. Artists featured in the exhibition include Paolo Arao, Grace DeGennaro, Clint Fulkerson, John Houck, Jennie C. Jones, Jeff Kellar, Paula McCartney, and Will Sears.

These exhibitions are curated by Executive Director and Chief Curator, Timothy Peterson with Curatorial Assistant, Rachel Romanski and in collaboration with the artists.

CMCA is located at 21 Winter St., Rockland. Winter hours are Wednesday-Saturday from 10 a.m.-5 p.m.; and Sunday from 12-5 p.m.