

Features > Spring Arts Guide 2022

SPRING ARTS

Houston's Art Scene This Spring Is Buzzing With Entertainment

A guide to all things arts and entertainment this spring.

By Amarie Gipson and Chris Gray • March 15, 2022 • Published in the Spring 2022 issue of Houstonia Magazine

Calder Kamin, "Plastic Planet Stag," 2018. Plastic bags, steel, foam, wood, glass eyes. On view at Houston Center for Contemporary Craft's Nothing Goes to Waste exhibit through May 7th.

This season, attend a gala featuring comedian Mike Birbiglia or visit an art exhibit made up entirely of discarded materials. Catch a performance of Romeo and Juliet at the Houston Grand Opera or take the kids to a performance of Charlotte's Web. The city's music scene is also at the height of what spring in Houston is all about as the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo returns with the 90th anniversary of RodeoHouston. Artists joining the celebration are Cody Johnson, Gwen Stefani, Maren Morris, Bun B and more.

Benefits/Galas

THROUGH MAY 14 SOUNDWAVES: EXPERIMENTAL STRATEGIES IN ART + MUSIC

In honor of its fifth anniversary, the Moody Center is celebrating the deep intersections between art and music in this group exhibition. Soundwaves features works in multiple mediums by more than 10 artists, including Jennie C. Jones, Christine Sun Kim, Jason Moran and Jamal Cyrus. Free. Moody Center for the Arts, Rice University, 6100 Main St., MS-