

UPSTATE DIARY LAUNCHES ITS FIRST ART + NATURE + HOME' EXHIBITION

May 13, 2021

CATSKILL — Upstate Diary, the premiere niche publication featuring creative lifestyles close to nature, is pleased to announce its first art and design exhibition, ART+NATURE+HOME. The online and brick & mortar show, highlighting work by some of the magazine's favorite rurally based visionaries, and will be on view from May 29 through June 13, 2021 in Catskill, NY. An online viewing room will go live on upstatediary.com beginning May 1, 2021.

ART+NATURE+HOME will feature furniture, design, functional sculpture, and art — all created from natural materials such as wood, clay, wool, and stone. Many of the objects are created exclusively for the exhibition by a select group of inspiring artists and artisans including: Jeremy Anderson, Paula Greif, Paula Hayes, Kat Howard, Christina Kruse, Kieran Kinsella, Jonathan Kline, Christopher Kurtz, Re Jin Lee, Chris, Lehrecke, Jonah Meyer, Jason Middlebrook, John-Paul Philippe, Martin Puryear, Kentaro Takashina,, Nicola Tyson, Joshua Vogel, and Nadia Yaron.

For this event, Upstate Diary assembled an advisory panel of experts and design luminaries such as Sarah Andelman, Glenn Adamson, Suzanne Demisch, Murray Moss, and Franklin Getchell. Exhibition highlights include a Skeuomorphic Wing Chair from 2016 chair by Martin Puryear (Matthew Marks Gallery); a Paula Hayes (Cristina Grajales Gallery) sculpture from her 2020 Mothers of the Nectar Children series; and a custom ping-pong table by Chris Lehrecke; a selection of coveted ceramics by Jeremy Anderson (co-founder of Apparatus), a never before seen Mother & Child sculpture from 2021 by Nicola Tyson (Petzel Gallery), and Paul Grief; a one of a kind mosaic coffee table by Jason Middlebrook (Miles McEnery Gallery); a room divider in raffia and blackened steel by John-Paul Philippe (Cristina Grajales Gallery); a writing desk by Jonah Meyer (Sawkille Co.); and sculptures by Joshua Vogel (BCMT Co.), among many others. Prices range from $450 to five-figure objects.
